To whom it may concern:

My son has been in special education for 3 years now. Over these 3 years I have dealt with many Bus Matrons. This year my son and I are blessed to have Barbara Notterman as his Bus Matron. I have never met or had interaction with such a dedicated and focused Bus Matron. School has only been in session for barely a month and a half and I am very impressed with her.

I am writing to express my utmost gratitude and appreciation for Barbara. She always notifies me when there are any delays in the arrival time for the bus. She always lets me know when she has any concerns about my son on his daily bus ride to and from school. She goes over and beyond what her job calls for. She also goes above and beyond what any Bus Matron has ever done for us.

Barbara Notterman is a gem. She is one of a kind. When I send my son off to school, I have NO worries that he will get there safe. When school is over, I have NO worries that he will make it home safely. To have no worries when my son (who is autistic) is in transit is something I have NEVER had unless I was taking him myself. To the parent of a special needs child, this is rare and priceless. I am thankful every school day that Barbara is there.

Best regards,

Catherine Adams
